Mark 12:28-31

Which commandment is the first of all?

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
and with all your soul, and with all your mind,
and with all your strength.

And the second is this:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
There is no other commandment greater than these.

I Corinthians 12:12-13, 26

*For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—
Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.
If one member suffers, all suffer together with it;
if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.*

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (responsive)

Gracious God, you have given us the gift of your amazing Spirit.

Though anointed for service in the name of Jesus,
we have brought so little good news to the poor.

Though sent to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,

we have done little to let the oppressed go free,
and have behaved as if the Lord's favor were only on us,
or on no one at all.

Just and merciful God,

today let your scriptures be fulfilled,
that we may clearly see and fully know your coming kingdom,
and live in ways that allow us to do all that we can to realize it.

*Prayer of Dedication and Affirmation of Faith      A Brief Statement of Faith

The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles
rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
claims us in the waters of baptism,
feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church.
In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage
to pray without ceasing,
to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.
